

Andrew LaBreche
Curriculum Vitae

Contact information:

194 Harris St.
Rutherfordton, NC 28139
alabreche@gmail.com

Education:

2007 – Ph.D., magna cum laude, Evangelische Theologische Faculteit, Leuven, Belgium
Dissertation, “Ethnocentrism: U.S.-American Evangelical Missionaries in Romania: Qualitative Missiological Research into Representative Cross-Cultural Value Based Conflicts”

1992 – Th.M., summa cum laude, Dallas Theological Seminary, Dallas, Texas, U.S.A.
Majors in Old Testament and Historical Theology. Thesis, “The Foundation of Jonathan Edwards’ Ethics in Its Historical Context”

1992 - B.A., summa cum laude, Tennessee Temple University, Chattanooga, Tennessee, U.S.A.
Major in Bible, Minor in Jewish Studies

Work History:

2013-present: United World Mission
Facilitator of cross-cultural equipping, Center for Intercultural Training, Union Mills, NC

1993-2012: Greater Europe Mission, Romania

- 2008 September to 2010 April – Co-leader, Member Development Department
- 2006-2008 – Co-leader, Preparation & Training Department
- 2004-2009 – Field leader for Romania; responsible for supervising up to 20 personnel, facilitating recruiting of volunteers, and networking
- 1996-2006 – Areopagus Center for Christian Education and Contemporary Culture. Charter member of Association; teaching staff (taught Ancient Near Eastern history, participated in cultural awareness seminars and other training events; more information available at www.areopagus.ro). Continues cooperative efforts on an occasional basis.

1986-1992: Wilson Business Products, Dallas, Texas
Part-time personnel coordinator

1984-1986: Educational Services Exchange with China
Taught English as a Second Language in universities in Chongqing and Beijing, China

1982-1984: Red Food, Inc., Chattanooga, Tennessee
Warehouse/fork lift operator

1978-1980: Tennessee Temple University, Chattanooga, Tennessee
Library audio-visual assistant

1977-1978: Pulite Homes, Michigan
Housing construction

Service:

2008-2018 – provided logistical assistance to Casa Olarului, Timisoara

2004-2018 – Vox Domini Baptist Church, Timisoara – house church host, international student outreach